

Example Results

query: reminiscence trigger
exclude sentences containing “reminiscence”

- 1.but , just incase someone out there s supper trigger sensitive , trigger warning .
- 2.today ; s prompt , talk about a memory triggered by a particular song ?
- 3.things trigger off memories , memories that just sends me into pure rage , like this .
- 4.some smells not only trigger memories , they trigger the intense feelings that went along with them too .
- 5.this wireless trigger is a control discreteness for camera to trigger studio flashlight synchronously .
- 6.its funny how much a smell or a song can trigger such vivid memories .
- 7.my heart still melts at the constant reminders that trigger a series of memories .
- 8.is there a photograph or a song , for example , that triggers nostalgic memory of a certain period of your life ?

query: I lost weight by trying calorie counting exclude sentences containing “calorie”

- 1.chris , the fat son , was trying to lose weight by dieting and exercising .
- 2.after dieting , exercising and trying to lose weight , i ve gained weight .
- 3.i have spent the past year , losing weight on a low carb diet .
- 4.i m back on the diet train , trying to lose some more weight .
- 5.speaking of weight , i ve already lost five pounds by drastically cutting carbs from my diet .
- 6.some of you may remember that i was part of the study comparing atkins weight loss to weight loss on a low fat , moderate carb diet .
- 7.and in my latest attempt to lose weight without exercising , i m drinking diet soda .
- 8.the last week i ve been on a diet , trying to lose weight .

query: democracy participation

- 1.political participation an educated , questioning , and engaged citizenry is essential for successful democracy .
- 2.a democracy needs the three fundamental building blocks popular sovereignty , political equality and political liberty to be a democracy at all .
- 3.bahamamama : democracy : nope : its a republic not a democracy ... who knew ?
- 4.trend of naisbitt s book , representative democracy to participatory democracy , continues the decentralization theme of the past two chapters .
- 5.it goes thusly : grassroots democracy is an organization composed of democratic activists and others determined to revitalize the democratic party .
- 6.harding the future of democracy another section from a citizen s guide to democracy inaction .
- 7.in his discussion of democracy , he cautioned that a pure democracy would oppress minorities .
- 8.social democracy your nation s freedoms : civil rights , economy , and political .

query: it's funny how a song can trigger such powerful memories exclude sentences containing “trigger”
“memories” weighted 5 times more sentences with >= 30 words

- 1.memories you wish you could forget , memories to remember , memories of the news , memories of the weather , memories of us , when we were together .
- 2.i keep having memories of her ... happy memories , sad memories , memories that fall somewhere in between .
- 3.that makes me sad ... choir banquet brings back memories , bad memories , good memories , and evil memories .
- 4.but next subject ... today was a day of memories , memories of jim hoff , memories of friends , memories of the summer .
- 5.thus , i have memories of remembering dreams , and sometimes memories of memories of dreams , but never memories of dreams .
- 6.she is the one who keeps the memories ; memories of tears running silent ; memories of threats issued harshly ; memories of pain too intense to explain ; memories of blood washed away .
- 7.has been a very long year , bad memories , sweet memories , frustating moments , stressed moments , happy memories , sadness , emo shit .
- 8.however , good memories make you think of more memories , and those memories make you think of more memories .